Hambledon Vineyard

Hambledon Vineyard is the oldest commercial vineyard in England. They mostly produce sparkling wines and their work is widely recognised as some of the best in the UK.

Despite a history dating back to 1952, the vineyard really came into its own in this millennia after being acquired by Ian Kellett in 1999, he planted the first Chardonnays, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier in 2005 and started to produce sparkling wines which can rival the best champagnes.
